TOBACCONIST HURLS BOMB IN QUIZ MEET

Wants to Know Something About "Buying of the Gov't."

OTTAWA, May 10—Walter M. Stewart, of Montreal, president of the Montreal Tobacco Company, threw a bombshell in the proceedings of the mass quiz meet which the government wanted to call three members of the government whom it did not like. The claimant's question would concern the "Buying of the government."

The Montreal tobacco man was the first witness when the commissioners asked him:

"Have I the right to speak?" he asked the committee chairman, H. H. S. St. John.

"Have I the right to call three members of the government and question them?" he said.

"You all are members of the government and Mr. Stewart, referring to the chairman."

The committee followed a reference of parliament and had specific instructions, said the chairman.

Reid, at noon on Thursday, Premier Browne was in Toronto to attend the bi-monthly conferences on both Tuesday and Wednesday with Premier R. B. Bennett.

Premier Browne left Ottawa for Toronto on Wednesday night. The two men had a conference with Hon. R. G. Reid, stated that his discussions with Mr. Reid were not on financial matters and apparently were successful, although the result of the conference before the Dominion cabinet on Thursday afternoon was not known.

The Premier also sat in with a delegation of Alberta steel, coal operators and others from the Dominion for a subvention on Alberta coal moving to the eastern markets.

The results of this conference with the Dominion cabinet on Thursday afternoon were not known.

The crowds that welcomed Mary Pickford at the Toronto station were undemonstrative in comparison with the reception given to her children across the border. At the civic reception in the Toronto-born actress' home, the Toronto-born actress' son, Stewart greeted her.

The Premier gathered the information that the two men, whose direct relief work will be continued on the same basis as last year.

On the other hand, he was pleased with his interview with Premier Bennett and is hopeful of fruitful results.

Marjorie Weds Her Kidnapper

LOS ANGELES, May 10.—E. C. Thompson, 40, kidnapper of Marjorie, announced his marriage to Marjorie Crawford, actress, at the Hotel Roosevelt here today for arrangement on charges of kidnapping her recently.

At Dowling's preliminary hearing a few weeks ago Miss Crawford had been informed of the kidnapping of her husband by a man named Harry Bell, and had agreed to go to him.

By a rule she escaped from him and notified authorities.

The Prime Minister gave no reply when asked if he would support an understanding for a self-governing Dominion, but pointed out that Japanese imports into New Zealand were by no means formidable.

New Zealand Give No Reply

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, May 10.—The United Kingdom has not asked New Zealand to reduce its imports of Japanese textiles, the Minister of Trade and Customs was available, retaliation under the extensive duty powers held in reserve for use only as a last resource.

Government quarters continued to insist the British quotas could do little harm to Japanese trade as a whole.

First Woman 'Fellow' for 4 Centuries

Appealing to District Court For Re-hearing of Police Court Case

LONDON, May 10—A woman physician has been elected a fellow of the Royal Society for the first time in 400 years.

Dr. Helen MacKay, physician to the Queen's Hospital for Children, London, and member of the Royal Medical Research Council.

Some time ago, Dr. MacKay, a native of Canada, was found not guilty of the charge of allowing a patient to die when he had no chance as defendant in the action, and the case is scheduled to come up again before the magistrate's court, possibly between June 3 and 5.

J. C. Clarke will appear for Mr. Elliott, while City Solicitor Thos. E. Garfield and City Procurator E. P. People will represent the city.

Physicians were served with a notice of appeal by Elliott yesterday afternoon.

The case is one of the most interesting in the history of city law. The new dog bylaw passed in Calgary and provides that no dog is allowed in a city street unless it is under the control of its owner or other competent person.

On the basis of the action brought against several dog owners in city courts, the city has passed a bylaw.

The crowds that welcomed Mary Pickford at the Toronto station were undemonstrative in comparison with the reception given to her children across the border. At the civic reception in the Toronto-born actress' home, the Toronto-born actress' son, Stewart greeted her.

The case will likely be heard by the Honour Judge Crawford.

EDMONTON ALBERTA—THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1934

Jury Says Conradson Not Guilty

Amid a strained silence from the crowd in the criminal court Wednesday evening, James Conradson, 35, of Lethbridge, was found not guilty of the charge of kidnapping his wife, Mrs. Edith Conradson, on the night of November 13 last. Mr. Justice Fives, who presided, then discharged the homesteader from the charge of murder. The jury was given only 10 minutes to deliberate after the eight days of evidence given by the 102 witnesses called by the defense.

For the second time that the 21-year-old bush homesteader's fate had been in the hands of a jury, he emerged unscathed before Mr. Justice Ford resulting in a discharge.

Mr. Conradson received the verdict without a flicker of emotion.

JURY FINDS VERDICT

It was 5:35 p.m. when His Lordship finished his 90 minutes of summing up to the jury—a summing up which was brief and to the point, resulting in a strong acquittal, was strongly in favor of Conradson.

For 10 minutes later the jury followed the fife of James Conradson, and again, and again, and again.

THE FORGOTTEN MAN

Ho H. Stevens' mass-buying committee has developed an interest in tobacco. Not as a solace for frazzled nerves, but as a factor in the economic scheme of things. Manufacturers are the ones who are buying tobacco in excess against the growers. This, Mr. Stevens says, is a "challenge to parliament," and something should be done about it.

The grower is fortunate. If he were only a user of "weed" and not a producer of it, the committee would waste no time on him and his complaints. It is all right to price the consumer—of tobacco or anything else. Growers' meetings are using elaborate machinery to help manufacturers and dealers do that. The consumer is the "forgotten man" in the current political wisdom of the day.

NATURE TAKES A HAND

Wheat prices advanced sharply in Chicago and Winnipeg, and it became a dozen frost-bitten gentlemen over in London pressed to pass a resolution suspending the law of supply and demand.

Prices went up because dry weather and high prices had prevailed over the wheat growing central states and the southern third of Canada's wheat growing provinces. That is, because the law of supply and demand continues to operate whatever resolutions the international wheat conference may please to pass.

The weather is not yet under human control, and until it is got under control "planned economy" is a myth as far as the world's food supply is concerned. What we have in the world which is not under a command economy is that it would vanish if crops failed everywhere for one season.

For all anybody knows, the Governments which are now threatening to penalties farmers for growing wheat may be a year from now threatening them with penalties if they don't sow more wheat.

BROKEN DOWN

Mr. Plunkett, member of the Commons for Victoria, B.C., thinks that the prairie provinces should be given a loan and that our expenditure Else "the prairie provinces will be coming to Ottawa, year after year for assistance, and make themselves nuisances."

And parliament will make the Central Bank an agency calling in the Central Provincial bonds and paying them off in sound legal tender money, thus freeing the taxpayers of the prairie provinces from a drain of a million dollars per day in interest charges, the prairie provinces will be given a Napoleonic type of loan.

For all anybody knows, the Government which are now threatening to penalties farmers for growing wheat may be a year from now threatening them with penalties if they don't sow more wheat.

CUSTOMER PROSPERITY NEEDED

A gas well was "brought in" at Lloydminster, estimated to have a flow of 15,000,000 cubic feet per day, and believed to show the presence of a supply sufficient to provide fuel for all the local industries in that area.

Alberta coal miners and mine-operators will be interested in that, in the same way that a merchant is interested when some one opens a new store in his trading territory. Gas is a female factor in competition with coal. Saskatchewan has been rightly regarded as part of the "home market" of the Alberta mines.

Far more important to the miners, and important in the other direction, would be a season of good crops, which would bring about the opening of markets abroad which would make the product saleable. Increased coal sales in town and country would make up for any loss of city customers.

The miners in Saskatchewan, like the people in Alberta, have been getting along with the minimum amount of coal during the years of depression. Better times would mean larger houses, more comfortable homes in winter—and a correspondingly larger demand for Alberta coal.

Miners cannot prevent good wells being drilled, nor order the weather so as to ensure good crops, but they can help to prevent early snows, the "blizzard" which has prevented their customers getting what they should get for what they have to sell, and in accord with which they are now being told they must cut down their production to the ruthlessly restricted markets that have been set to them.

Poems That Live

A WISH

Give me a cat beside the hill;
A bee-hive's hum shall soothe my ear;
A wifely brook that turns a mill,
And share my meal, a welcome guest.

The swallows, off, beneath my thatch!
Shall flutter from her clay-built nest;
Oft shall the pilgrim lift the latch,
And share my meal, a welcome guest.

Around my inied porch shall spring
Each fragrant flower that drinks the dew;
And Lucy, at her wheel, shall sing
In russet-gown and apron blue.

The village church among the trees,
Where first our marriage vows were given,
With meary smells shall swell the breeze
And point with taper to Heaven.

—Samuel Rogers.

The Halifax Chronicle, in its Sixty Years Ago column, noted: "Captain Davison, of New York, has just sold his collection of 10,000 marine marbles to Nova Scotia. Twenty pairs are expected in a few days. There is more than sufficient evidence that the twenty pairs arrived.—Monoton Transcript."

The Passing Show

By J. S. COPPER

The four milling companies seem to have made the usual mistake of buying in up bakery concerns and forcing up the price of bread to a point where it pays the housewife to bake her own bread, and allows the little baker to start a local bakery.

If it was not that bread is a staple, it would be a good idea to open up a thriving export business supplying Canadian homes with British-made bread baked from Canadian flour and sold in Canada at a profit.

Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, gave a speech at the opening of the new mill at Sarnia, Ontario, in which he said:

"...an interesting fact about the bakery business a few days ago, he omitted to point the moral and diagnose the illness. He was telling of the failure of mergers in the industry as an illustration. Bakers' mergers formed in Montreal capable of a daily output of 183,000,000 pounds of bread—evidently to supply not only Montreal itself but 60 per cent of total bread requirements of the province of Quebec."

Toronto has six mill-controlled bakeries with a capacity of 202,000,000 pounds of bread—more than half enough for the whole province of Ontario.

The author didn't mention the figures for Vancouver or other cities but the situation is similar, the mill-controlled bakeries having a capacity far beyond the requirements of the cities.

Yet despite these mill-controlled bakeries which theoretically should be able to supply bread cheaper than the independents who have mills behind them—there are 122 "independents" in Montreal and 249 in Toronto.

I've watched the growth of a little bakery business in Vancouver started three years ago by a man on relief. His wife baked bread in a shed behind their home and peddled it to the few "islanders" who had no bread but had a van and a Ford car. This woman has three bread vans and an air of prosperity.

The Minister of Trade and Commerce said there is need for care in dealing with the situation, but the author omitted to say anything about the importance of your employer's persistence in persevering in any case. You will be able to wear away a head of bad habits and the time you will find that where before there appeared to be a weak will there has been built up one of strength and power.

Once you begin the actual process of developing good habits, you will find that each hour out of the day offers a golden opportunity to practice the new habit you wish to develop. This is the secret you will find when you are learning to control your thoughts and to command your inner forces. The way to self-command is now open to all of you, who are strong enough to make the effort necessary to secure first health.

At first you will do well if you will concentrate upon some one certain habit which you wish to change. Remember that no habit weak will always be an obstacle to your power to develop a good habit.

As you progress from day to day, and find that you are gradually improving, the good results that you attain in conquering your old bad habits will be multiplied. The greater benefits are in store for you, and the time will come when you will set no limit on what you may accomplish through self-control.

At first you will do well if you will concentrate upon some one certain habit which you wish to change. Remember that no habit weak will always be an obstacle to your power to develop a good habit.

C.P. APPEALS ASSESSMENTS ON LAND HERE

Asking Substantial Reduction Before Alberta Assessment

The half-million-dollar appeal launched by the Canadian Pacific Railway opened before the Alberta Assessment Commission at city hall, Tuesday morning, and was continued during the afternoon.

Asking for a substantial reduction in the assessment, the C.P.R. appealed that the 1932 value of $450 placed on its land holdings between 10th and 11th streets north of Stephen Avenue, the extent of this property is 16.4 acres.

OUTSIDE PROPERTY

The railway, in appealing the assessment placed on the South Side land, comprising 76.05 acres, also asked that the 1932 value of $100,000 be reduced to $60,000 assessment on the Jasper avenue business offices.

H. C. St. John, assistant tax commissioner for the C.P.R. and D. W. Claperton, K.C., Calvert, appeared in the hearing.

Witnesses called by the appellants, including S. J. MacLennan, Burns, Calgary, manager of the P. Burns properties in Canada and representative of the C.P.R., and Percy W. Abbott, K.C., are presenting their case.

Both Percy and Abbott are local veterans.

IN EXCESS OF VALUE

Mr. Novak argued that the assessment placed on the city was greatly in excess of the actual value of the railway's properties and declared that the city's figure was not correct.

Appeals of the Canadian National Railways and the Northern Alberta Railways were also heard before the board Thursday afternoon.

R. Nichol, Winnipeg, assistant tax commissioner for the C.N.R., and Percy W. Abbott, K.C., are presenting their case.

CITY FREE OF MAJOR CRIME

The city was free of major crime during April, according to the police department, which made a small wave of burglary and molestation of young Police girls, it was revealed in Police Court, G. S. McNaughton reported about the city commissioners Thursday.

During the month, eight auto thefts and 14 burglaries, property valued at $16,176 was stolen, of which $15,000 was recovered, and $1,176 to the owners. Police reported 203 cases in April, did less business than March, when 221 persons appeared before the magistrate's court.

Twenty persons were injured in 51 auto accidents, and 100 in other traffic squads; no fatalities resulted. The city's staff investigated one auto accident, and 100 in other traffic, one illegal operation which is still under investigation.

Money payable to the city was $500, of which $450 was made up by the city, and $50 by the "Inferno" where motorists breaking traffic by-laws can pay $2 and leave the city. The city was free from a court appearance.

A couple of male thieves, who have set "he-men" went "after" in a downtown drug store Wednesday night when they robbed the place of eight ounces of "Asha of Roma" perfume, which was in the back of the store located on one of the less-traveled streets when the two scoundrels scented perfume when the store was open.

One is described as heavy set, with a mustache, and the other as heavy set "he-men" with a mustache.
